

CiRO Bespoke

CiRO was conceived to provide a bespoke business intelligence service to our client base, tailoring our delivery to exactly fit each individual project. As the company has evolved and expanded we have introduced a number of 'off-the-shelf' products, however we continue to deliver the CiRO Bespoke service whenever it is called for.

As the name suggests our clients have utilised CiRO Bespoke to support their business during a wide variety of unusual or critical situations including:

- Provision of secure communication lines and satellite telephones
- Protection details for important conference delegates
- Vulnerability and risk analysis
- Behavioural analysis of senior/board level appointments
- Reputation management
- Kidnap and ransom negotiation
- Journey planning and management
- High-net-worth family and staff safety training
- State of the art technical surveillance (satellite/drones)
- Undercover operations
- Countering industrial espionage and counter surveillance
- Maritime risks and security at sea
- Terrorism and scenario planning
- Compliance and sanctions analysis
- Geopolitical intelligence gathering
